Amerced ijd [2d]
They present that John [ijd [2d]] Wodewarde made default. Therefore he was amerced.

Withdrawal by a villein, holding in hand, no profits[1]
Also they present that Thomas Tele, the lord's villein[2], who held two Messuages with two half-virgates of land from the lord, according to the custom of the manor by rendering service to the lord and xxvjs viijd [26s 8d] a year has left the lord's demesne of his birth and removed all his goods and chattels and but where he is not known. Therefore it was ordered that all the tenants should make enquiries. And the said holding remains in the hand of the lord because of no tenant. And the income from the same has no value this year, only xiijs iiijd [13s 4d]. And so the loss is xiijs iiijd [13s 4d] [allocated in] nest years accounts.3

Adjourned   until Bedford
Robert Bande who [has] a plea of debt from John Bande the younger And the said action is adjourned until Bedford

Amercement iiijd
John Myton and John Gaubryel, who took action against Gregory Emond[4] in a plea of debt, are at mercy.

---

[1] Although it is said that the profits aee nothing, they are written as half of the expected amount
[2] That is, born on the manor.
[3] allocated in next years accounts.
[4] The capital letter in this surname is very difficult to read. The name may be Emond, but it has not so far been found elsewhere in the records

The vicar's Garthelands, there and John Gostwyk, who took action against the said Gregory in a plea of debt, are at mercy.

Defective buildings   days   penalties

Holding in the hand of the lord, income nil
At this [court] one messuage and half a virgate of land which Felicia Prentys lately held from the lord, according to the custom of the manor, remained in the hand of the lord because of no tenant. From which the messuage and half a virgate is not answerable nor renders xiijs iiijd [13s 4d] a year and entry fine for the same this year. It has no worth this year except vjs viijd [6s 8d] and so the loss is vjs viijd [6s 8d].

Holding in the hand of the lord, income nil
Also they present that Richard Baudewene who held one quarter of sown land in the demesne by service [and] viijs [8s] of silver, surrendered [it] into the hand of the lord because he was a poor man [and] was incapable of holding the said holding. And the income to the Lord has no value this year, only iijs [3s]. And so the loss is vs [5s]

[No names of assessors of fines]

Sum of this court [in the account in the eighth year of the reign of Henry Vth] vjd [6d].
And in the expenses of the head steward being there for the view for one day iijs viijd ob [3s 8½d] [allocated in the aforesaid account].
