

Roll 48, Cardington

Court held there on the Friday next before the feast translation of Saint Thomas the martyr in the above Year [6th July 1459]

Essoins

Thomas Fox and Thomas Blythe of the common

Postponed until the day of the view

The Homage there, that is to say, Thomas Vynter, John Fyll, Simon carter<sup>1</sup>, William Bakewayte, Simon Smyth, William Warner, John Gardiner, Thomas Boston, Robert Waterman, sworn men, present that there was an assault between Robert Horne and John Neweman senior, whose defence is unknown and [it is] postponed until the day of the View for a better enquiry, and they said that Robert Horne drew blood and that otherwise all was well on this day.

Fealty

To this came William Waryner and he was recognised to hold one tenement with certain lands and one toft from the lord freely, at the rate of nothing paid a year for suit of court neither in the demesne nor in the Views and he made fealty.

Sum of this court, nothing.

---

<sup>1</sup> Note: carter, beginning with a lower case letter, it is not clear whether this was his surname or his occupation