

Wyllington - View of Frankpledge ^{View} With Court of the aforesaid¹ John Gostwyk esquire and Joan his wife, held ^{View} there on the eighth day of October in the thirtieth year of the said lord King [1538]

Essoin: John Warner of Blunham

The Homage,

John Gostwyk	John Ryseley	Thomas Tottenham	Thomas Cleydon
William Yarwey	Richard Smalwood	John Fyssher	Nicholas Reve
John Myton	Thomas Cowper	John Glenne	Thomas Warner

John Lamberd, sworn men,

The sworn men present that Walter ^{ijd [2d]} Luke, knight, William ^{ijd [2d]} Gascoign knight, the prior of ^{ijd [2d]} Newnham, the Wardens of the Fraternity of the Holy Trinity of Blounham and John Bennett of Charleton owe suit of Court and made default. Therefore they are amerced.

As stray

It was presented that a certain Horse of black colour came as a stray and remained within this demesne for half a year and a quarter and more and it is valued by the homage at ijs viijd [2s 8d].

Constables there:

John Gostwyk and John Ryseley, sworn men, present that John ^{iiijd [4d]} Glenne drew blood from John Kyng, the common shepherd of this village. Therefore he is amerced. And that Robert ^{iiijd [4d]} Smalwood assaulted John Ryseley and Thomas Tottenham and drew blood. Therefore he is amerced.

To this court came Johanna Ryseley widow and she holds one cottage with a garden from the lord and she pays ijd [2d] each year to the lord for free rent.²

Bakers

Also they present that William ^{iiijd [4d]} Forde, Nicholas ^{iiijd [4d]} Cowper, Edward ^{iiijd [4d]} Perdoner, M ^{iiijd [4d]} Flower of Bedford are common bakers and they have broken the assize. Therefore they are amerced.

Brewers

And that John Glennes ^{ijd [2d]} wife is a common brewer of ale and has broken the assize. Therefore she is amerced

Penalty

It was ordered that each Tenant shall ring his pigs from time to time when it shall be necessary. Also that none shall root upon pastures neither those held in severality nor upon common pastures within this demesne, under penalty of forfeiture to the lord iijs iiijd [3s 4d].

Assessors of fines, John Gostwyk, William Yarwey sworn men..

¹ The four rolls numbers 65 to 68 inclusive are written on one piece of parchment. The use of the word 'aforesaid' here suggests that they were copies of the originals.

² Written in a different hand, without a heading.

Total of the perquisites [blank])