

Wyllington. View of Frankpledge <sup>View</sup> With Court of the aforesaid John Gostwyk esquire held there on the tenth day of November in the thirtysecond year of the reign of the said lord King [1540].

Essoins none

Sworn men,

John Gostwyke	Richard Smalwood	John Fyscher	Thomas Cleydon	Richard Couper
John Myton	Thomas Cowper	William Sengle	John Lamberd	William Soper
John Ryseley	Thomas Tottenham	John Glynne	William Feyre	Robert Smalwood
		Thomas Warner	John Corbey

They present that Walter Luke, knight [blank]

Land silver

Who say on their oath that they gave vs viijd [5s 8d] to the lord for land silver on this day, with the four place lands being and remaining this day in the lord's hands.

Common Fine

And they gave xvjd [16d] to the lord for head silver on this day, apart from the people residing in the fine house or lord's mansion.

Fealty

At this Court it is testified through the homage that William Gascoign' knight who held freely from the lord through fealty, suit of Court and other services one half acre of land lying in the fields of Willington in one furlong there called over lynehyll between the land of the Guardians of the Fraternity of Blounham on the north part and the lord of Willington's land now in Thomas Tottenham's tenure on the south part and it abutts towards the west on nether lynehyll, died since the day of the last Court and that John Gascoign' esquire is his son and nearest heir and he is over twenty six years of age. It was presented that the day of distribution (/) [should be delayed] until the next court

Relief 2 capons

At this court it is testified by the homage that John Yarwey who held one Messuage, with a Croft adjoining with certain lands pertaining to the same messuage, freely of the lord by fealty, suit of court and rendering two Capons each year in rent. Which certain messuage is called Copte Hall and it lies between the lord's messuage on the east and west parts and thence its north head abutts on the King's road, and that since the last Court he has closed his existence. And that John Yarwey is his son and nearest heir and he is over 24 years of age; from this two Capons fall due to the lord as Relief. The same John, present here in the Court, made fealty and was recognised to hold the aforesaid Messuage, Croft and land by rendering the aforesaid rent and services.

Bakers

Also it was presented that William <sup>ijd [2d]</sup> Huxley, John <sup>ijd [2d]</sup> Sute, Nicholas <sup>ijd [2d]</sup> Couper, are common bakers of bread and have broken the assize. Therefore they are amerced And that John <sup>ijd [2d]</sup> Glyne's wife is a common brewer of ale and has broken the assize. Therefore she is amerced.

Penalty

It was ordained that no keeper of sheep within this demesne shall keep his sheep in the Deans nor in any other pasture called the several pasture grounds before the feast of St. Michael the archangel [Michaelmas September 29th] next in the future, under the penalty of forfeiture of xxd [20d] to the lord.

Penalty

It was presented that each tenant shall ring his pigs from time to time when it shall be necessary. Also that they shall not root upon pasture held in severalty nor upon common pasture within this demesne under penalty of forfeiture of iiijd [4d] to the lord as and when.

Constables

John Gostwyk gentleman, John Ryseley, sworn men, say that all is well

Total of the perquisites: [blank]

Assessors of fines, John Gostwick gentleman, John Myton, sworn men