

51b Wyllington

Hallmoot of Katherine Duchess of Norfolk held on Friday the xjx^o [19th] of April in the fifth year of the reign of King Edward III^{ti} [4th] [1465]

Essoins

None were essoined on this day

The homage:

John Yerwey the elder	John Sterlyng	John Morboune
John Tylere	Nicolas Cruce	Simon Usshare
John Flandrys	Nicholas Waren'	Henry Parker
Randolph Bawdewyn	John Waren'	John Tyler

The sworn men present that William ^{ijd [2d.]} Couper owes suit [of court] and has not come. Therefore he is amerced. And that the said William ^{ijd [2d.]} broke the hedges of John Tyler and carried them away. Therefore he is amerced.

Also they seek a day for enquiring whether the water and fisheries of the Lady are enclosed from Shawdyche as far as parpepyt or not, before the next [court] under a penalty of xijd [12d.] for each of them and they have a day.

Amercements xijd [12d.] Penalty pending

Also they present [that] the roofing on the pig-shelter in ^{not done} Randolph ^{ijd [2d.]} Baudewyn's holding, and the roofing at the end of the barn and the bakehouse in John ^{ijd [2d.]} Tyler's holding, also one barn in John ^{ijd [2d.]} Roper's ^{not well [done]} holding, also the end of the hall in Nicholas ^{not done} Warren's ^{ijd [2d.]} holding has damaged timbers, walls and roofing. Therefore they are amerced. And it is presented that they should be sufficiently repaired before the next court, under penalty of xld. [40d.] for each of them, forfeited to the Lady.

[illegible] ijd [2d] [illegible] ijd [2d]

Also it is ordered to everybody that they should provide certain land called Coppyd Hall, and later the quantity Nicholas ^{ijd [2d.]} Cruce has ploughed there, for the use of Elizabeth Maryon before the next [court] under penalty of xld. [40d.] And that the aforesaid Nicholas will put that right at the next cultivation under penalty of xijd [12d.] forfeited to the Lady.

Deliveries [illegible]

Also the bailiff is ordered to make delivery of x [10] perches of withies for the repairs of the holding of John Rydy, and x [10] perches for the repairs of John Tyler's holding, and a half a rood for the repairs of the holding of John Yerwey the younger and j [1] and a half roods for repairs of the mill Dam this year.

Assessors, John Flaundrys, John Morbourne Sworn men
The sum of this court xiiijd [14d]

In the expenses of the steward and all others being there for the sum total of one view and one court beforehand

iijs vd [3s 5d.]
 xijs ijd [12s 2d.]

therefrom in the expenses of the steward and of other officials of the Lady vijs jxd [7s 9d.]

The Bailiff has sold and has delivered xj [11] acres and x [10] perches as tithes and for repairs this year therefrom he has delivered as tithes j [1] acre and j [1] perch and for the repairs of the mill dam and various tenements as it clearly appears in the aforesaid court roll, j [1] acre. And he has sold ix [9] acres and ix [9] perches ^{this year} at a price for an acre of viijs [8s]. Sum total iij li xijs vd q^a [£3 12s 5¹/₄d.] concerning which the bailiff is answerable to the Lady.