Orders

Who say on their oath that all is well and furthermore, with the agreement of the tenants, it was ordered that none shall allow any cattle whatsoever to pasture within the Stakes Mead² causing damage to the seed by carts, under a penalty of xld [40d] for each made to the contrary. And it was ordered that Margeria Myton, Alicia Launsleyn' should clear their ditches before the next Court under the aforesaid penalty

And it was ordered that John Noreys was ordered to repair his holding, which needs thatch, under the aforesaid penalty.

Sum of this court nothing

In expenses of the steward iijs iiijd [3s 4d]

¹ The date shown in this title assumes that 'after the close of Easter' means after Easter week

² The document contains a difficult phrase here. It seems to say de noc seme' ab cacriat' so the suggested translation may not be accurate.
