

Willyngton

View of Frankpledge with Court of the aforesaid Elizabeth Petre held there on the xxv [25th] day of October in the fourth and fifth year of the aforesaid King and Queen¹ (1557)

Essoins William Benett

The Homage or xij^u [12] Sworn Men

John Riseley	Thomas Smalwood	Edward Cleyton	Thomas [illegible]
John Fischer	Robert Osmond	Thomas Clerke	John Warner
John Smythe	William Byngham	Christopher Myton	Thomas Myton
John Yarway

Nicholas Luke esquire, first Baron of the Exchequer²

Suit of Court

They present that John ^{iiijd [4d]} Aleyn esquire and Alicia ^{should be present} Myton, widow, owe Suit of Court etc

Land silver vs viijd [5s 8d]

Also they present that they gave to the lady as land silver on this day with ten pieces of land [illegible] on this day

Common fine xjd [11d]

They present that they gave xjd [11d] as Common Fine to the lady this day

Bakers of bread

And also they present that [illegible] ^{iiijd [4d]} and John ^{iiijd [4d]} Couper of the town of Bedford were Common bakers of bread and broke the Assize. Therefore they were amerced and [were?] separately [illegible]

Strays

Also they present that a certain cow called a [illegible] which came as a stray within this demesne for more than a year was valued by the Sworn Men at ijs [2d]

Meadow broken and certainly they present that Daniel Clerk broke [into?] the lady's meadow and took [illegible] two [illegible] the loss of [illegible] Therefore he is amerced ijd [2d]

Insethouse

And also the aforesaid Sworn Men present that John Gostwyke, gentleman, [illegible] knocked down and destroyed the hedge next to her land by the entrance to the lane

¹ That is, as described in roll 69: 'the reigns of Philip and Mary, by the grace of God King and Queen of England, Spain, France, also Sicily, Jerusalem and Ireland, defenders of the faith, Archdukes of Austria, Dukes of Burgundy, Medina, Brabant, Count of Hapsburg, Flanders and the Tyrol, and Ireland'

² Scaccarii

called the Milne Lane lying next to the land of the lady on both sides. Therefore they order to the same John that he puts right the aforesaid destroyed hedge in front of the lady's land before the next Court, under a penalty of forfeiting iijs iiijd [3s 4d] to the lady

Election of Constable John Cleyton was elected as Constable and sworn in [check this]

Sum of the perquisites of this Court [blank]

Assessors of fines John Yawey [sic] John Fischer